

EMPLOYERS OF THE GRADUATES EMPLOYED IN THE FIELD

The Digital Media and IT fields are populated by a combination of full-time employees, contract employees, freelancers (independent contractors), part-time employees and project-based employees. In many cases, BAVC graduates indicate they are self-employed, working at a variety of freelance gigs. Of the graduates not self-employed, here is a list of the companies they went to work for. Please note that not all students reported salary information.
